Dear Partner in Ministry,

These days the news is dominated with reports of a rapidly spreading infection. And FEAR of the coronavirus seems even more of a pandemic than the disease itself. Thousands have already become infected with the deadly COVID-19. This leads us to ponder: How many more will die before an antidote is discovered?

As Christians, we have an even more serious concern—the infection of sin. And our greatest concern must be: How many more will die without the knowledge of the love of God and His antidote—the plan of salvation to rescue the human race?

As disease, fear and sin continue to infect this planet I wonder: What will the world look like in twenty years?

My grandfather believed that Jesus would come during his lifetime. And yet, today he is resting peacefully in his grave, waiting for the second coming. By 2040, will we be in heaven? Or will this world continue its downward spiral into chaos and destruction?

You and I live in a world of the unknown. We don't know how many will die from the many viruses that infect this planet. We don't know the day of Christ's coming. We don't even know what will happen tomorrow. For this reason, Jesus tells us, "Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble." Matthew 6:34

We are not to worry about tomorrow, but that does not mean

April 2020

Since the children have flesh and blood, He too shared in their humanity so that by his death He might break the power of him who holds the power of death—that is, the devil—and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death.

Hebrews 2:14, 15 NIV

we should not prepare. Jesus also told us, "Be ye also ready." Matthew 24:44

HOW do we prepare for tomorrow? How do we prepare for 2040, should this world last that long?

As we look around today, it seems that some of the greatness and unselfishness of past generations is not being adopted and practiced by current generations. But what if we can restore the greatness? What if we can restore such principles as courage, faithfulness, bravery, perseverance and unselfishness?

Those are the very characteristics on which LifeTalk children's radio programs are based. Our children and youth must hear stories of faith and courage. And these are the kind of stories heard on LifeTalk Radio.

Can we influence the character of those living in future generations? Yes, we can. You and I have the power to instill positive characteristic in the next generation and beyond!

At LifeTalk Radio, we believe that character-building programs can positively influence our children and make a difference for those who will be adults twenty years from now. For this reason, we are committed to launching a 24/7 streaming kids channel, specifically to provide Bible-based and wholesome programs for the children of today.

What PARENTS are saying about LifeTalk Radio:

"With 24/7 kids programming, my kids can tune in when it fits our family schedule, and as parents we can trust that what they are hearing is Christ-centered and building their characters for eternity."

"My kids love the stories that LifeTalk broadcasts, but the time they are aired doesn't always match our family schedule. With 24/7 kids programming, we would be able to listen to more Christ-centered, character-building stories that they would otherwise miss."

One parent wrote us: "I think a kids stream would be a wonderful outreach. What would it cost? Thanks, from Iowa."

To launch LifeTalk Kids, we need to raise $50,000 to create the infrastructure necessary for this vital project. But we can't do it without your help. Please consider sending a life-changing gift this month to help inspire the next generation with quality character traits.

You can help determine the character of tomorrow's leaders, by investing in training the children and youth of today. Please do it right now. Send your gift in the enclosed envelope. Or simply go online and click the donate button on our website: LifeTalk.net

Our children of today can be prepared for tomorrow and for the second coming of Jesus, if you and I make the right choices now. Thank you for your vital support.

Yours in the blessed hope,

John Geli
Manager/Director LifeTalk Radio

P.S. You and I have an opportunity to influence future generations. We must provide character-building programs for the children of today. They will be the leaders of tomorrow. We plan to launch a 24/7 streaming channel for kids THIS SUMMER. But in order to make it happen, we need YOUR financial help. Please give generously TODAY. It's easy. Just visit: LifeTalk.net and click the "donate" button.

What GRANDPARENTS say about LifeTalk Radio:

"As a grandparent, I see how my grandchildren are involved with their electronic devices. But fortunately each of these devices will play LifeTalk Radio. So I want my grandkids to have CONTINUAL access to quality programs that will help shape their character."
