

Valerie, a homeschool mom, said this about our LifeTalk website: “I am finding so many excellent resources for myself as a homeschooling mother on here [www.LifeTalk.net] and I really appreciate them. We are in a time that as Christians it can feel like a lonely journey and this website was such a refreshing discovery since I feel I have no one outside of my home to talk to at the moment.”

Even though you and others may have to be home “alone” during this pandemic, your friends at LifeTalk Radio are still working to provide the supportive programs and resources you need to encourage you, inspire you, equip you, and to connect you and your loved ones with Christ.

A father in Montana writes: “My son and I both like it [‘The Word’ with Nicholas Hope], and it may be my favorite of the programs. Family Life Today is great as well.”

Recently, the Family Life Today hosts interviewed an author about raising successful children, talking about going beyond the school subjects and helping kids to know Jesus—to have their own real friendship with Jesus Christ. Is anything more important?

The global corona virus plus many recent happenings—riots, racial issues, clashing politicians, hurricanes, and wild fires—cause me to think about what is most important. I ask myself, “Am I ready for Jesus to come? Am I doing everything I can do to help others to know Jesus Christ, and be ready to meet Him?” Do you wonder about that, too?

If so, would you join me in helping LifeTalk Radio to connect even MORE people with Christ? Your ongoing prayers and financial support help LifeTalk to “be there” for stressed and anxious listeners with the programs and other resources that meet felt needs.

Thank you! May God bless you with His peace in these troubling times.

P.S. We’ve stepped out in faith in order to create the 24/7 Kids Streaming Channel which is launching this month. The budget for this project is $50,000 and we are still short. Please help us achieve this goal and give a little extra this month. Thank you so much for your continued support of this radio ministry.

Dear Partner in Ministry,

Did you know that September 13 is Grandparents Day? In the United States there are over 70 million grandparents and they average about 4 grandchildren. Did you also know that 40% of grandparents still work? And more than 40% are active on social media.

To honor grandparents, LifeTalk Radio® has created a dozen FREE digital greeting cards. Just go to LifeTalk.net/eCards and send a beautiful card to your grandparents. Or if you are a grandparent, you may “hint” at your loved ones that these cards are available free.

As I’m writing this, I realize our country is in chaos and our planet is in peril. In the midst of on-going disease and disasters LifeTalk Radio is here to give hope and encouragement. This radio ministry is connecting people with Christ. We thank God that we still have the opportunity to reach people through media. Also, we thank YOU for continuing to help make this possible financially.

A new school year has begun. However, the 2020 school year is more complex than ever before. If navigating the school year wasn’t hard enough, parents and educators now have to manage the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic in addition to cell phones, social media, plus the effects of damaging TV programs and violent computer games. No wonder children and teens are increasingly more anxious and stressed!

For this reason, LifeTalk has created our 24/7 Kids Live Streaming Channel. And it launches THIS MONTH! This venture has not been without challenges. As you might have guessed, during this pandemic manufacturing was delayed. But we are excited that our Kids website is being tested as I write this and our computers are full of quality programs, Bible-based programs, educational programs, adventure programs and much more.

LifeTalk Kids will provide a continual stream of excellent programs designed to build the characters of the next generation. Kids of all ages around the world can listen all day, and even all night—as long as their parents don’t catch them—(smile).

LifeTalk Radio also has special programs for parents. These include: Family Life Today, Homeschool Companion, and Parenting Today’s Teens. These excellent programs are filling the “backpacks” of parents and grandparents with the tools needed to help kids thrive. You can find the schedule for these and other programs at: lifetalk.net/program-schedule. Just select the time zone for your area.
